

A QUARREL WITH THE INSURGENTS

Troops Under Cap. McGraw Have a Skirmish.

REBELS INTRENCHED AT POINT NEAR MANTILUPA.

Army Gunboat Napidan Shelled the Enemy Out, and About One Hundred and Fifty American Soldiers Land—Retreated to Hills and Took Up a Position Too Strong For Our Small Force to Attack—Late Advances Report Much Sickness.

Manila, July 13.—[Special]—Three troops of the Fourth cavalry under command of Captain McGraw, had an engagement Tuesday with five hundred insurgents at Mantilupa, on the south shore of Laguna de Bay. The rebels were intrenched near the shore. The army gunboat Napidan shelled them out and about one hundred and fifty American soldiers landed and drove them out, they retreating to the hills. There the insurgents took up a position that was too strong for the small American force to attack.

The rebels left ten dead on the field, but their loss is supposed to be thirty-five. The American loss was two wounded.

Sharp Fighting With Insurgents. Manila, July 13.—[Special]—Sharp fighting between the insurgents and the cavalry under Lieut. Babcock is also reported about Balinaga. A large force of insurgents are active near San Ildefonso.

Good Results in Recruiting. Washington, July 13.—[Special]—The war department professes to be more than satisfied with the results thus far obtained in the recruiting service in the endeavor to raise new regiments. The statement is made that the returns average about four hundred a day and it is expected the regiments will be recruited in about three weeks.

Much Sickness in Philippines. San Francisco, July 13.—[Special]—Advices have been brought here by the transport Newport to the effect that twenty-five per cent. of the volunteers in the Philippines were on the sick list June seventh.

A few of the regiments had less than a third of their men on duty. When the Nebraska regiment came in from San Fernando it had less than two hundred in its ranks.

San Francisco, Cal., July 13.—The transports Newport and Ohio, having on board Brig.-Gen. Summers and the First regiment Oregon volunteers and a detachment of the volunteer signal corps, arrived in port Wednesday afternoon. Thousands of people were at the water front of the harbor to give the returning volunteers a welcome. The Newport was first to arrive, just after 4 o'clock, followed in fifteen minutes by the Ohio. Cheer upon cheer went up from the troops, ships, and excursion fleet down the harbor to quarantine grounds, where the health officers went aboard and found everything correct. Below were between eighty and one hundred sick and wounded convalescents. In all the vessels brought 1,033 men and forty-eight officers.

From Brig.-Gen. Summers down, all were as glad as schoolboys to be at home once more. All talked freely regarding conditions on the island of Luzon, the necessity of a much larger army to conquer the natives, and the prospect of peace. Taken as a whole, the regiment was of the opinion that the whole Philippine group was not worth the price paid for it.

Scores of the rank and file stated that ever since the arrangement of peace with Spain the volunteers in Manila had felt that their part was over and that they ought to be sent home at once. None of them seemed to care to talk of the commercial benefit to accrue to this country from retaining the islands. Seemingly they had not given that side of the question a thought. They had tired of the fighting job when peace was finally arranged, and were rejoiced to be at home once more, and knew that the other volunteers still there felt as they did in the matter.

Without exception the men interviewed said that at least 50,000 additional troops were needed to bring about peace. The troops were necessary to garrison and hold the towns taken from the Filipinos. With the present force this was impossible, and as fast as the American troops evacuated a town after conquering it the Filipinos quietly sneaked in and again took possession.

Brig.-Gen. Summers said: "Aguinaldo's forces were badly demoralized when the Oregon regiment left, twenty-nine days ago. I am of the opinion that peace will have been obtained before the end of the next dry season. Of course, a much larger force is necessary in order that we may hold the country and towns evacuated by the rebels. I am of the opinion that starvation will cut a large figure in bringing Aguinaldo's forces to terms. On account of the war the rice crop, on which the natives largely depend for food, is next to nothing this season. "The general cry when we left Manila," said he, "was that 100,000 more men were necessary to bring about peace. There were no prospects of such result when we left. The volunteers have wanted to come home ever since peace was announced. Of thirty-two fights the Oregon regiment took part in no fewer than twenty-seven, and we did not seem to leave much of a lasting impression upon them."

Sergt.-Major Marshall said 10,000 more men were necessary to conquer Luzon alone.

"The war is not popular among the volunteers," said he. "Six weeks in that climate enervates a man. A dash of 100 yards in that country prostrates a soldier. Every volunteer in Luzon who did not fall into a soft snap was eager to come home when peace was arranged. The so-called great victories have been without lasting results. When we marched out at one end of a conquered town the Filipinos quietly sneaked in at the other."

Capt. Saunders said positively that not fewer than 100,000 men must be sent at once to the Philippines for service at the end of the rainy season. Capt. Saunders is commander of the transport Newport, and is thoroughly acquainted with the conditions in and about Manila.

The volunteers will probably be mustered out here. A vote was taken on board and 90 per cent voted San Francisco.

Few Re-enlist at Manila. Manila, via Hongkong, July 13.—The volunteers are not responding with alacrity to the call of Major Bell to re-enlist. Barely 200 volunteers have re-enlisted, though a number of men who have drifted down to Manila have been secured as recruits. The volunteers seem still anxious to fight if a definite campaign of subjugation is adopted.

Ordered to Manila. Washington, July 13.—Orders have been issued at the war department directing headquarters and two battalions of the Nineteenth Infantry to leave Camp Meade in time to reach San Francisco to sail on the Tartar, July 23.

FEVER IN HAVANA AT A STANDSTILL

STRINGENT PRECAUTIONS CONTINUE, HOWEVER.

Excitement Caused by the Discovery of Valuable Copper Deposits Within Five Miles of the Capital City—Authorities Decline to Enforce Compulsory Education.

Havana, July 13.—[Special]—Yellow fever in Havana has been brought to a standstill. The most stringent precautions, however, continue to be taken. Considerable excitement has been caused by the discovery of valuable copper deposits within five miles of Havana.

The authorities here have declined to enforce compulsory education. Provisions are being sent by the government to the destitute in Havana and the Pinar del Rio Province.

NEW HERSELF TO BE INSANE

Mrs. Reaka Crouse, of Roscoe, Sent to Elgin Asylum.

The following is taken from The Beloit News of last evening: "Mrs. Reaka Crouse, of Roscoe, was yesterday morning adjudged insane in the Winnebago county court and she will be sent to Elgin, where it is to be hoped special treatment will restore her to reason, says the Rockford Republic. Mrs. Crouse is the wife of a young Roscoe farmer, and is a comely young woman. She was twenty-nine years old yesterday. She has fits of insanity at times when she is considered dangerous. A few days ago she took her two children, a boy of six years and a girl of nine years, to the creek near her home, intending to go fishing. Without warning she took hold of the little boy and threw him in the water, then turning to the little girl intending to do the same with her. The little girl struggled and got away and the little boy, in the meantime, had floundered around and escaped. Mrs. Crouse realized she was insane, and was ready and willing to go to Elgin."

"The school census of Beloit for 1899 shows an increase in the school population of 220. The total number of persons between the ages of four and twenty years is now 3133 as against 2913 last year. Of this number 1831 are on the west side; an increase of 95 over last year and 1297 are on the east side, an increase of 125 over last year. On the basis of one school child in every three of the population according to these figures, the population of Beloit is close to the 10,000 mark. Many believe that this is a low figure and that when the census is taken the population will be over 10,000."

WERE THEY KILLED BY KISSING BUGS?

OCONTO AND MADISON CHILDREN DIE FROM STINGS.

A Groom-to-Be Leaves Black River Falls a Few Minutes Before the Marriage Ceremony—Carl Schultz Killed by "an Elevator at Racine—Latest News From Badgerdom.

Oconto, Wis., July 13.—The daughter of R. Ames, living a short distance from Abrams in this county was severely bitten by what is supposed to be a kissing bug. Her upper lip is swollen to three times its normal size, and some apprehension is felt for her, the local physicians not knowing for a certainty the cause. The colloid treatment is being used.

Madison, Wis., July 13.—The kissing bug has made its advent in Madison. Three or four cases are reported in the city. It is said that the death of a young man at the contagious hospital a day or two ago, given out at the time as being from blood poisoning, was really due to the bite of one of these insects on the chin. Dr. Jackson, one of the leading physicians in this section, believes that the kissing bug is largely a humbug and that the disease is really what is long known among physicians as malignant pustule, caused by the bites of flies or other insects which have been feeding on decomposed matter.

Deserted on Marriage Eve. Black River Falls, Wis., July 13.—Frank Thompson, son of George M. Thompson, a well known farmer of the town of Albion, was to have been married last evening to Miss Tott Turner, youngest daughter of Nelson Turner, of this city. Young Thompson obtained his marriage license of the county clerk on July 5. The marriage was to have occurred at 7:30 p. m. last evening at the house of the bride's parents. The minister who was to have performed the ceremony and the invited guests and relatives were present, but just before the time set for the ceremony, to the surprise of all, it was learned that Thompson had disappeared. He had hired a livery team at 7 o'clock and been driven to Merrillan, whence it is supposed he took a train for the west. Thompson left a short note for his mother which was delivered shortly after he left, in which he stated that he liked Miss Turner as well as ever and that he would be back soon, but no reason was given for his strange conduct. Thompson is about 25 years old, and Miss Turner is 19 years of age.

Says She Was Kidnapped. Racine, Wis., July 13.—On July 5 a youthful couple appeared at the courthouse to be married. As the True marriage bill makes it optional with a county judge to marry a couple within the five days' license, Judge E. B. Belden questioned the pair closely and decided to perform the ceremony. The groom gave his name as Madison F. Jones, and the bride Edna Lecount of Syracuse, Ind. Today the county clerk received a letter from Zachary Lecount, father of the bride, inquiring if a license had been granted for the marriage of Jones and his daughter, and stating that she was kidnapped. When the girl appeared before Judge Belden she was anxious to get married. The letter says that neither bride nor groom, were of marriageable age.

HOW BLIND PUPILS ARE INSTRUCTED

SUMMARY OF WORK AT THE STATE SCHOOL.

The Commencement Exercises Showed What Was Done in a Musical and Literary Way, but in No Sense Indicated the Scope of Opportunities for Learning Offered to the Student

A little summary of the work at the State School for the Blind for the year just ended will be of interest to people who pay their money cheerfully for the support of state institutions, and yet who know but little of the results accomplished. The large and attentive audience that greeted the graduating class, had an opportunity to see something of the proficiency attained in music and literary work, but this is only a small part of the course of instruction that covers a period of from ten to twelve years.

The Kindergarten for the past year has been in charge of Miss Mabel Fairfield, of Milwaukee. The class is peculiar in that it embraces all ages of children from six to fourteen years, but the teacher has been equal to the task, and gratifying results are shown.

The primary work has been successfully carried on by Miss Helen Tuttle, of Baraboo, Miss Eliza A. Houghton, of Madison, and Miss Elizabeth M. Abbott, of Baraboo. The examinations reflect much credit to this department and speak well for the faithfulness of the teachers employed.

Miss Abbott also has direction of the physical work and her time is largely devoted to the gymnasium. The entire school share the benefits of these exercises, and during the past year scientific measurements, that have been kept, show that physical development, as well as the correction of many incipient deformities, has been satisfactorily secured. The gymnasium does more to educate the hands and feet and quicken mental activity than any one department of the school, besides being a great health promoter.

The High school has been under the instruction of Miss F. H. Benson, of Wauwatosa, and Miss Alice B. Fellows, of Milwaukee. Miss Benson is an experienced teacher in the work and her classes in general history, English literature and economics show wonderful progress. Miss Fellows' work in higher mathematics, physics, physiology and botany, is also thorough and efficient. Miss Augusta Watson, who for more than thirty years has been connected with the school, has done excellent work as principal of the literary department, while keeping up her classes in geography and history.

Much Attention Given to Music

Much attention has always been given to music. Mrs. J. H. Jones, for many years the musical director, has accomplished much during the past year. Fifty five pupils have taken piano lessons throughout the year, twenty have been instructed in harmony, and a small class have been given lessons on the pipe organ. Miss Laura Engleson of Beloit, has long been an assistant piano teacher, and her ability is recognized and appreciated. The orchestra for the past year has been in charge of Herbert W. Adams, of Soldiers' Grove, a young man who graduated from the school three years ago. The orchestra speaks for itself. In addition to this work, Mr. Adams has given individual instruction to five violin pupils, two clarinet, one cornet, and one double bass. The vocal work of the school was never better than now, owing largely to the efficient and intelligent work of the teacher, Miss Jeanette M. Beckwith. The school is divided into two choruses, one of children and one of young people. A daily drill for nine months has developed a volume of music rarely excelled in school work. Miss Beckwith has also instructed ten pupils in individual voice culture throughout the year, and some are developing rare talent.

William F. Hursey, of Columbus, Ohio, has been the tuning teacher for the past two years. Nine young men have comprised the class, and some of them are ready to start for themselves. Mr. Hursey combines the art of teaching well with the art of instructing the boys in business methods adapted to the blind.

In the Work Department.

In the work department forty-four pupils, mostly girls, have been taught to sew and knit. This busy room is in charge of Miss Eleanor Parks, of Ripon, a patient, faithful teacher. Miss Parks combines with her work the duties of assistant matron, having charge of the little girls. Her suit of rooms with the dormitory of little white beds connecting, is the fairy land of the household.

Mrs. Ellen Hanson, the oldest teacher in the house and whose life has been given to the work, has charge of the weaving room. Seven young men have been under her instruction this year. She is a faithful teacher and accomplishes much in results. In the same building Joseph Preston, of Beloit, has long presided as teacher in the boys' work shop. Hammock and net making, chair caning, broom and mattress making, are taught, and much patience and skill are required. Seventeen boys have been under instruction this year, and all show advancement. Miss Augusta Hoffman has instructed twenty-two girls in cooking, and many of them can do excellent work. Typewriting has been taught by Miss Jennie L. Kendall, the very efficient stenographer and bookkeeper of the institution. A typewriting department under Miss Kendall's supervision will be added soon. Miss Elizabeth J. Curtis has long held the responsible and trying position of matron. She combines with rare executive ability, the qualities of mind and heart that peculiarly adapt her to the work, and the lives of many blind people have been brightened and broadened by her influence.

Endorsed by State Board of Control

The atmosphere of the house is wholesome and every effort is made to send the children and young people home stronger in every way. The essays delivered by the class of 1899 showed freedom of thought, untrammelled by political or religious influence and while some of the premises are not tenable, the responsibility is largely with the modern text book and the pernicious doctrines that have so largely found expression in our higher institutions of learning during the past few years.

It is gratifying to the management of the institution to know that the administration of affairs is heartily endorsed by the State Board of Control. President Lyon, in speaking for the board at the commencement exercises, having expressed his sentiments in a highly complimentary manner.

How to Reach Two Famous Resorts

An Outing Hint From "Outing."

Fast, safe, superbly equipped and most carefully governed, one need not wonder at the great popularity of the New York Central. No other line affords such facilities for through travel between the East and the West as this wonderful four-track system. In the possession of Grand Central Station, located in the heart of New York City, and within trifling distances of all first-class hotels, this railway offers greater advantages than competing lines. Spring, summer, autumn and winter, it has attractions irresistible. The great Northern Wilderness, the playground of the state, now beckons its thousands. As autumn falls, America's scenic masterpiece, far-famed Niagara, will claim its annual host of pilgrims with its majestic power, the fierce turmoil of the Whirlpool and all the picturesque surroundings, the awesome Cave of the Winds and the several other minor attractions of the vicinity. And when winter comes then the entire scene transformed to what seems a fairyland of marvelous frost dressings, of icy forts and snowy palaces; of gleaming, crystal prison barriers vainly striving to bind the roaring, foaming plunge of water—will present a spectacle of weird, mysterious beauty which is not duplicated in the world.—Outing.

PLUM FOR FORMER JANESVILLE MAN

OFFERED A POSITION WITH A GOOD SALARY.

It is Understood That He Will Accept the Appointment as Assistant City Attorney of Milwaukee—His Name Will Be Sent to the Council for Confirmation.

The Milwaukee Sentinel of this morning gives the following information concerning our former townsman, Gen. Joseph B. Doe, which will be of interest to the readers of The Gazette:

"Gen. Joseph B. Doe has been offered the position of special assistant city attorney by City Attorney Runge. It is understood that Mr. Doe will accept, in which event his appointment will be sent to the common council for confirmation, Monday."

"Ever since the legislature repealed the law creating the office of corporation counsel and Charles H. Hamilton had to leave the city hall, City Attorney Runge has been complaining that his force was inadequate. Finally at the last meeting of the council an ordinance was passed authorizing the appointment of an additional city attorney. The salary was fixed at $2,400, this being the compensation received by L. W. Halsey, first assistant city attorney. The ordinance provides that the appointee shall be confirmed by the common council and that his term shall expire with that of the city attorney."

"Mr. Runge had several attorneys in mind for the position. There was some talk of promoting R. S. Witte, now second assistant city attorney, at a salary of $1,800, to the new position, and filling Mr. Witte's place by the promotion of George E. Ballhorn, now third assistant city attorney at a salary of $1,000 a year. Mr. Runge has been reticent about making any announcement in regard to his intentions for the reason that he did not care to invite opposition to confirmation of the appointee. It is believed that the council will confirm Mr. Doe's appointment."

Gen. Doe has been an active democrat for many years. He was born in Janesville, March 8, 1855, and was educated at Racine college. After his admission to the bar he formed a partnership with E. M. Hyzer, which continued for four years. Later he was associated with George G. Sutherland for eight years. He was twice elected city attorney of Janesville. In 1891 he was appointed adjutant general of the state by Gov. Peck, which position he held until Dec. 15, 1893, when President Cleveland appointed him assistant secretary of war. He resigned in March, 1897, and it was afterward said that Secretary Lamont had deprived him of all authority during the closing months of the Cleveland administration. Soon after leaving Washington, Mr. Doe opened a law office in Milwaukee.

BRODHEAD BAND WAS GREAT

Entertained Large Crowds of People at the Court House Park.

The court house park was thronged with people last evening who assembled there to listen to a band concert. The celebrated Brodhead band, under the efficient leadership of Prof. John Barrett, was there and together with the Imperial band of this city, furnished exquisite music that was liberally applauded by the appreciative hearers. This band is unquestionably one of the very best that has ever visited the Bower City. One of the features of this musical organization is a 14-year-old cornetist, who is a wonder.

After the races last evening the band serenaded several of our business places, among them The Gazette office, where they rendered some of their choice music. The band remained in the city over night and today have been as obliging as ever in discoursing sweet strains of music. We trust that it may be the good fortune of Janesville to receive visits often from these musical entertainers and assure them that their visit was a feature of the bicycle meet.

"THE WORLD" PLEASED THEM

Presented at Myers Grand Last Evening—Good Play Tonight

"The World" a six-act melo-drama, was the attraction at Myers Grand last evening, presented by the clever artists composing the Anderson Theatre company. There were numerous startling situations portrayed that were sensational, especially the maniac, sinking ship and suicide. The specialty features were good, as usual. The bill this evening will be the "Cannon Ball Express." Popular prices will prevail, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

BAD MEN WERE PLENTIFUL

But Chief of Police Hogan kept a Sharp Lookout.

Chief of Police Hogan says that fakers were plentiful in the city yesterday and today and that they were here with all kinds of gambling devices to fleece the public, but the fakers are now a much wiser lot of men.

Chief Hogan would not consent to their games being put in operation and the result was that most of the gamblers left town much earlier than expected.

Boodle Rumors in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—Stories of boodle in connection with the action of the council Tuesday night are current. Many claim to have knowledge of crooked work in connection with the passage of the ordinance, but few can be found who are willing to make direct statements. There is talk of a grand jury being called in connection with the boodle rumors and the Security franchise.

Went's Replace Jamont.

Paris, July 13.—It is semi-officially denied that there is any intention of replacing Gen. Jamont, commander in chief and vice president of the supreme council of war, who, it is added, retains the full confidence of the government. It was said that Gen. Jamont was to be succeeded by Gen. Brugere, who last week succeeded Gen. Zurlinden as military governor of Paris.

"Sound Money" Men to Confer.

Richmond, Va., July 13.—E. V. Smalley, general secretary of the National Sound Money league, was in Richmond Wednesday consulting with a number of gold standard men with reference to holding a national currency convention in this city. It is believed a call for the convention will be issued some time in August, and that the date will be fixed for the early part of October.

Storm Rages Over New York.

New York, July 13.—Over this city and the Hudson valley Wednesday afternoon there passed a thunderstorm which in the space of about an hour caused loss of life, set buildings on fire and did other damage. In the borough of Brooklyn several persons were severely injured and may die, and in the Williamsburg section the lightning destroyed valuable property.

To Raise More "Rough Riders."

New York, July 13.—Gov. Roosevelt has directed Capt. Grain-O Brings Relief to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in, and almost universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee, but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach and ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be overpriced at 13 and 25c per package.

CONCEDE DEMANDS OF MINERS

Coal Companies in Pennsylvania and Indiana Grant Advances.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 13.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers' Union of North America received a telegram Wednesday stating that the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal company of Pennsylvania, which is the largest single coal company in the world, has conceded the demands of the strikers and that an agreement has been reached by virtue of which 8,000 men will return to work at once.

This, Mr. Mitchell says, is a long step in settling the troubles in district No. 3, which comprises the central portion of Pennsylvania. The agreement means a great deal for the twenty mining towns there are in the district. The men secured an advance of 2 1/2 cents a ton for machine-mined coal.

Mr. Mitchell also received a telegram from Evansville, saying that the Evansville Mining company has signed the scale demanded by the miners. "I feel," said he, "that the Evansville strike will be brought to a conclusion that is in every way favorable to the men in a short time."

MINERS MAY ATTACK TROOPS.

Situation at Cartersville Strained—Open Hostilities a Possibility.

Cartersville, Ill., July 13.—The mining situation in this city is strained owing to the recent firing on the troops stationed here. Later developments strongly point to a preconcerted plan to drive the troops from the position they have occupied and patrolled for several nights.

It is known that both contending parties, the men employed at the Brush mines and the strikers, are fully armed with modern guns and that both sides have received supplies in the last few days. The outlook is for a long drawn out contest, similar to the Pana troubles.

It was rumored here that dynamite had been found, with which it was designed to blow up the mines, but the arrival of the troops frustrated the plan. The rumor is not generally believed.

Kansas City After Convention.

Chicago, July 13.—Kansas City democrats, backed by members of their party in other parts of Missouri, have raised $50,000 which they intend offering to the democratic national committee if the committee will send the democratic national convention to Kansas City. A large delegation of Kansas City democrats will be here next Thursday when the national committee meets here, ready to hand over $50,000 for the convention. This money would go into the national democratic campaign fund. A solid carload of big Missouri democrats is expected in Chicago next week to lobby for the convention, and it is claimed that Denver and Omaha will drop out and throw their support to Kansas City.

Big Price for Indianapolis News.

Indianapolis, July 13.—The Indianapolis News was sold by the receiver Wednesday to Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, the majority stockholders, for $936,000. The figures are a genuine surprise to the public, whatever might have been the sentiments of those who bid and who had personal knowledge of what the investment would pay. Seven years ago John H. Holliday sold his controlling interest in the News on a basis of $250,000 for the plant. The policy of the paper, it is announced, will not be changed in any respect.

Steamer Paris at Falmouth.

Falmouth, July 13.—The Paris has reached port at last, after all its adventures. It was past midnight when it came into the harbor. It will be patched up securely enough to make it seaworthy for a run under its own steam to Southampton, where it will be docked and made as good as new.

pains in the small of the back in the

In connection with comfortable, stylish foot covering is the price. This is the season when you hear more of aching and tired feet, and you wonder at the cause. ## THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1785—Stephen Hopkins, "signer" for Rhode Island, died in Providence; born 1707.
1793—Marat, the terrorist, was assassinated by Charlotte Corday. Marat was one of the most sanguinary of the Jacobins. A creature of no personal presence, he swayed the masses by his energy and mastered his colleagues by his fiery passion. With Danton and Robespierre he planned the destruction of the Girondists and when cut down by the heroines was preparing a list of victims to be sacrificed.
1822—Modern battle of Thermopylae early in the Greek war for independence.
1890—General John Charles Fremont, explorer, soldier and Republican presidential candidate in 1856, died in New York; born in Georgia, 1813.

A SENSIBLE PROPOSITION

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.—The proposition of the state board of health to test all milk cows in the state with tuberculin will receive the endorsement of consumers of milk. Inoculation with tuberculin develops symptoms which are unfailing evidence of the existence of tuberculosis in the animal so tested, and it is the only way in which the disease can be detected in its early stages. A cow that is apparently healthy may be afflicted with tuberculosis, and the milk of the diseased animal may be consumed by infants or by frail people predisposed to attacks by disease germs. It has been stated that the milk from cows infected with tuberculosis contains no germs of the disease, but there is enough doubt as to this to warrant the rejection of the milk. Besides, the idea of consuming the milk of a sick animal is repugnant. The fight against tuberculosis by the state board of health can be made effective only by enlisting public opinion in favor of tuberculin test. If milk consumers generally were to demand from their dealers a certificate that their animals have been thus tested, and in addition require a certificate from a local board of health, that the premises upon which the animals are kept are in a sanitary condition, the milkmen would soon seek cover of endorsement from the health boards. Many cases of typhoid fever have been traced to milk brought from unsanitary dairies, where polluted water is used by the cows, and by the milkmaids who wash the milk pails. Some dairies are so filthy that the milkmen would not have a single consumer if their patrons could see the source of the daily milk supply. A glance at some dairies would be as destructive to the appetite for milk as a view of some restaurant kitchens would be to the appetite of even a ravenously hungry man.

The statement is made it has been estimated that English people use an average of eight matches each person per day, and annually over 1,700,000,000,000 are burned. The largest match factory is in Austria, and each year it uses 22,000 pounds of phosphorus, turns out 2,500,000,000,000 matches, and for the boxes alone 160,000 feet of wood is used.

The Wisconsin free silverites have sounded the slogan, and now have their ears to the ground listening to the tramp of the hosts. Up to a late hour this afternoon, however, no thunder had been heard.

The silver democrats are now arranging for their semi-occasional organized effort to oust National Committeeman E. C. Wall, and there is every indication that the effort will be as successful as usual.

The steamer Paris has been dragged off of the Manacle rocks, although her owners had given her up. Nothing seems to be impossible these days.

What's all this talk of moving the state capitol to one of our Milwaukee beer gardens, a brewer's business lodge or a prohibition movement?—Milwaukee Journal.

Neither, dear Journal. It's a bluff, just an ordinary bluff.

The most notable feature of the bicycle races yesterday was the conspicuous absence of Mayor Carter H. Harrison, of Chicago.

It is estimated that the state board of control will use $5,000 worth of mileage this year, and the state has to stand the expense.

PRIEST IN POLITICS.

Father Heldmann of Chicago May Run For Congress.

It is possible that one of the candidates for congress from a Chicago district next fall may be a Catholic priest. Father George D. Heldmann has been urged by his parishioners to enter the race. He has been persuaded to do it provided Archbishop Feehan will give his consent.

Father Heldmann is pastor of St. Paul's church. He has done most effective work and has shown himself to be an earnest fighter in any cause he considers just. He has made himself widely popular, and under his administration his church has grown in numbers and power.

His parishioners are most of them Germans, and Father Heldmann is held in high reverence by them. Of German parentage, he has always been in touch with his flock, and that they will follow him politically as well as in spiritual guidance there is no question.

Father Heldmann was born in Chicago in 1858, and is a typical Chicagoan, proud of his native city and well read in the political history of the times.

The movement to nominate Father Heldmann has been developing ever since he came forward as a determined opponent of an Anglo-American alliance. He was one of the organizers of a German-American mass meeting held in May to denounce the union between England and the United States.

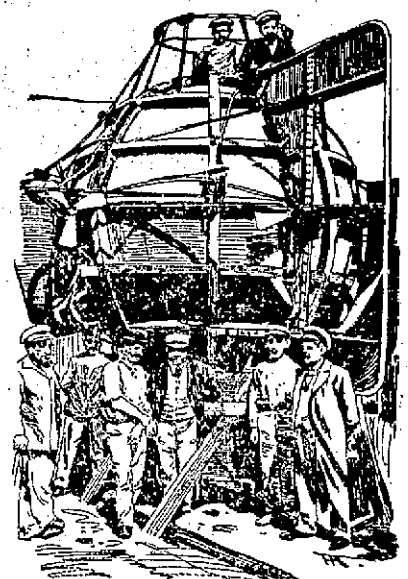

The second district has always been largely a German one, and according to Democratic politicians Congressman Lorimer is losing his hold upon the district. Republicans admit Father Heldmann would be one of the strongest candidates the Democrats could put forward.

QUEER FRENCH BOAT.

The French are taking a lively interest during spasms of the Dreyfus case in a new submarine craft which was recently tested off Cherbourg.

The new boat is almost spherical in shape, with a number of fins and projecting guard rails. It has a propeller and is designed to move along over the bottom of the ocean.

The new boat is not speedy, but the recent experiments show that it can go to the bottom and stay there until its navigator wishes to come to the surface. This has been exactly what most of the submarine boats previously invented would not do. Some of them refused to go to the bottom at all, while others showed an alarming tendency to go down and stay there.

La France, as this queer looking craft is called, made three descents in water nearly 90 feet deep, and each time the occupants of the boat remained submerged for an hour. On the first trial M. Platti, the inventor, was accompanied only by one of his workmen, although he cordially invited several guests who had gone out to see the test to go with him. Afterward several representatives of the company which has been formed to manufacture these boats went down to the bottom of Cherbourg harbor and were returned to the surface without having experienced any discomfort or alarm.

Submarine boats of the La France type will be constructed for industrial purposes, although it is possible that the French war department may find a way in which they can be utilized as adjuncts to the navy.

WYMAN CASE DISMISSED

State Game Warden Johnson Failed to Find Enough Evidence.

For the want of sufficient evidence the case of the state of Wisconsin vs. Alf Wyman was dismissed in the municipal court this morning.

Wyman was arrested several weeks ago on the charge of illegal fishing with a seine at Lake Koshkonong. Charles Inman, of the town of Plymouth, pleaded guilty in the municipal court this morning to the charge of assault and battery and paid a fine and costs of $7.61.

Epidemic of Accidents.

In the first four weeks after the opening of the electric railroad at Cairo, Egypt, it is said that no less than eighty persons were killed, and since that time the weekly average of victims has been seven or eight. This high rate of casualties is supposed to be due in part to the imperfect sight of many natives in consequence of the prevalent eye diseases, but fully as much to the fact that they are unfamiliar with such swiftly moving vehicles.

By the box of 100 they, sell at $4.00. Sanborn.

WHEELMEN WILL NOT FIGHT BAGGAGE BILL

CHIEF CONSUL ADVISES CYCLERS TO ABANDON FIELD.

Says That After Having Made a Careful Study of the Matter He Thinks That Further Warfare Against the Railroads is Useless—Control of Racing Not Yet Solved.

At the semi-annual business meeting of the Wisconsin division League of American Wheelmen held in this city last evening Chief Consul Van Valkenburgh, of Milwaukee, read the following report:

The Wisconsin division, L. A. W. presents to its members a record of work accomplished during the past six months of which no one can have reason to be ashamed. The success which has attended its efforts at Madison in behalf of all the wheelmen of the state has been most satisfactory. In the great fight for good roads much legislation was secured and a forward step was taken in the effort to secure state aid for building better highways.

The Guth bill, a measure intended to drive wheelmen off the country roads, was defeated through the efforts of the league, after a vigorous and active fight. The passage of a statute authorizing the incorporation of mutual bicycles insurance companies was secured through our efforts and a company has already been organized in Milwaukee under the provision of this law, giving to wheelmen the much needed protection at a nominal cost. In connection with this, and as an illustration of the benefits to be secured by joining the league, it is my pleasure to be able to state that this company offers the advantages of insurance to league members at one-half the rates charged to non-members.

Your chief consul was directed at the last annual meeting to try to secure the passage of a bicycle baggage bill. Much time and effort was spent in the attempt. It resulted in failure. After having been in the thick of two fights for this bill and after having made a careful study of the matter, your chief consul finds it advisable to recommend that further fight along this line be abandoned. This is said with an abiding faith in the rightfulness of our demands, but with a feeling that any further effort to secure the enactment of such a law, in the face of such powerful and determined opposition, will harm us in our efforts to obtain other and more needed measures of interest to wheelmen.

The problem of good roads is foremost in the minds of all thinking wheelmen. We want good roads not alone as wheelmen, but also from a deep conviction that they will mean a saving of millions of dollars to our great agricultural classes. We must do all we can to advance the cause of good roads, and as wheelmen we should stand for a great power in the community assisting in the advancement of the economic feature.

The problem of the control of racing seems far from being solved. With the light of the past few months of our experience I am inclined to think that the sooner the L. A. W. drops the control of racing, the better it will be for both parties.

THOROUGHGOOD INTERVIEWED

Regarding the Choate-Hollister Furniture Company.

Ex-Mayor John Thoroughgood in an interview with a representative of The Gazette, speaks of the management of the new Choate-Hollister Furniture company as follows:

"We are expecting to run the Choate-Hollister Furniture Co. of Janesville, successfully," said Ex-Mayor Thoroughgood. "The R. M. Bostwick who is vice president of the company, is the junior R. M. Bostwick—a man well known for his strict attention to the business interests of the extensive firm of J. M. Bostwick & Sons, the dry goods house. Attorney George G. Sutherland is equally interested in the company. We do not expect that gentleman to have much work to perform, but he will be our advisor and also take care of the legal end, a part of the business I am hopeful we will have little need for."

"Yes, the stock is all taken and by Janesville men. There is no outside capital. Mr. Estes comes to us with the good name and good will of the Choate-Hollister Co. of Oshkosh and whose firm name we assume. Yes, we will sell some stock to anyone who may desire it, but we do not intend to peddle it nor ask any one to subscribe for $50 or $100 worth. We are putting many things in order which, through inattention to many necessary things. Considerable repairs and changes must be made. We are also putting in a few new machines. I think this is all I can tell you."

MORRISSEY'S TEAM CAPTURES GAME

DEFEATED LOCAL Y. M. C. A.'S THIS MORNING.

Home Run by the "Man from Oshkosh," with Two Men on Bases, Settles the Question—Preparatory to the Big Show Tomorrow—Adkins Out of the Box.

The Oshkosh and Y. M. C. A. ball clubs gave a rehearsal at Athletic park this morning, preparatory to the big show which takes place tomorrow afternoon. As an experiment to see how good a game could be played with Adkins out of the box, the Y. M. C. A. management put Fisher in to do the twirling and after the first inning he pitched a very creditable game. The Y. M. C. A. were as usual first at bat and the first three men were easily retired. Hanford, the first striker of the Oshkosh nine was disposed of, then Fisher hit the next batter, gave the following one his base on balls, then with two men on bases, he graciously gave Morrissey a ball, where every kid in town knows he wants it, and away it sailed over the left field fence for three runs, amid loud applause from most of the fair sized crowd in attendance. Then Matzler made a two base hit and Brewett brought him in with a single—four runs—enough to win the game.

But it was a pretty game—the best of the season—and if the real performance tomorrow afternoon is as good, it will be worth more than the price of admission.

The following is the score:

Notes of the Game

Adkins was like a fish out of water, but he played a good right field, cutting off one base hit on a throw to first, and but for a low throw would have retired another batsman.

Downs, the new short stop of the Y. M. C. A., made a great running catch in the left field and Blankely also made a good one.

In the seventh inning with two men on bases, Roy Palmer of the home team, made a good base hit and brought in two men just at a time when they were needed.

Cornelius McGinley umpired the game in a first class manner and there was no objectionable kicking.

The third baseman of the Oshkosh nine handled bunt hits in National League style.

In fact they all did splendidly, including the spectators, who were unusually good natured.

Sullivan made a beautiful catch of a line fly over second base.

A Lunch Delicacy

Down in Chicago people are much taken with a new lunch article put up in cans called Lake Ciscoes, packed in tomato sauce. We purchased an invoice of them and are well pleased with them. The ciscoe is a lake fish, very tender, with no bones to speak of. They are put up in a light salt brine, then smoked and packed in tomato sauce and are simply delicious. They sell at 10c per can. # The Necessary Resources.

By Anthony Hope

COPYRIGHT, 1899, BY A. C. CANNON.

She was not crying when she received Mr. Byers. She was radiant. She told him that her part was done; now he must do his part; then the prince would do his. Thus the great enterprise would be accomplished. That odd pang struck Byers again as he listened. He recollected the beginning of Lady Craigenoch's unfinished sentence. "If you're making a fool of that woman"—That was just what he was doing. He escaped from the thought and gratified his curiosity by turning the talk to Mrs. Rivers herself.

"Accomplished, eh?" said he. "And it's a crown for the prince!"

"Yes, and great influence for you."

"And you'll be—"

"I shall be nothing. I shall go away." She spoke quickly and decisively. The resolution was there, but to dwell on it was dangerous.

"Where to?" he asked.

"Oh, I don't know. Anywhere."

"Back to your people?"

She looked at him for a moment. He had allowed himself to sneer. Her manner as she went on without taking any notice of his question proved that Lady Craigenoch had been right in saying that she was a lady.

"My work will be done," she said.

"From the first moment I knew the prince I determined to use my influence in this way. He only—he only needed a little encouragement."

"And a little money?"

"I gave him one; you're giving him the other. We shall both be repaid by his success."

"You're a very strange woman," he said. Probably he did not know how straight and hard his eyes were set on her. They could not leave her. What a pity it was that she would not go with the prince—as his wife or even, to use Lady Craigenoch's charitable evasive phrase, as she was now. To set the prince on the seat of his ancestors was not an exploit that appealed to Mr. Byers, but to set this woman on a throne would be worth—well, how much? Mr. Byers detected this question in his own heart. He could not help reducing things to figures. "Why don't you go with him?" he asked bluntly.

"It would prejudice him," she answered simply, folding her hands in her lap.

Then she stretched out a hand toward him and said suddenly with a sudden quiver in her voice, "I talk to you like this, and all the time I'm wanting to go down on my knees and kiss your hands, because you're doing this."

The lean hand held the square jaw. The attitude was a favorite one with Mr. Byers, and his eyes were still on her.

"Yes, that's what I want to do," she said, with a nervous laugh. "It's so splendid of you." Her breath came fast. Her eyes were very bright. At that moment Mr. Byers wished that the quick breath and the bright eyes were for him himself, not for the helper of the prince, and for that moment he forgot Mrs. Byers and the babies in Portland place. It was years since he had had any such wish about any woman. He felt a sympathy with Prince Julian who had almost cried when he signed the manifesto, because if he mounted the throne Ellen Rivers would leave him.

"We want money now directly," she went on. "We want the manifesto in every house. I can manage the distribution. And we must pay people—bribe them. We must sow seed. It'll soon come up. And the prince will act at the proper time."

"How much do you want now?" he asked.

"Half a million now and another next month," she said.

"And more before the end?"

"Yes, most likely. You can get it, you know."

"And shall I ever get it back?"

"The prince has given his word," Mr. Byers assumed a doubtful air. "Oh, you're not as stupid as that. You believe him," she added, almost contemptuously. "Do you mean it's a speculation? Of course it is. I thought you had courage."

"So I have," said Byers. And he added, "I may want it all too." What he would want it for was in his mind, but he did not tell her.

He thought a great deal about the matter that evening as he sat by the fire opposite to Mrs. Byers, who knitted a stocking and said nothing. She never broke in upon his thoughts, believing that a careless interruption might cost a million. Millions were in his mind now, and other things than millions. There was his faith with his associates. They were all waiting his word. When he gave it, rumors would die away, reports be contradicted, the manifesto poohpoohed. There would be buyings, the stock would lift up her head again, confidence would return, and the first to buy, the first to return to faith in the stock, would be Mr. Byers and his associates. The public would come in afterward, and when the public came in he and his associates would go out again, richer by vast sums. The money and his good faith—his honor among financiers—bound him, and the triumph of his brains, the beauty of his comp, the admiration of his fellows, the unwilling applause of the hard bit—all these things he mightily. On the other side, there was nothing except the necessity of disappointing Mrs. Rivers, of telling her that the necessary resources were not forthcoming; that the agitation and the manifesto had served their turn; that the prince had been made a fool of; that she herself had been made a fool of too. Many such a revelation had he made to defeated opponents, calmly, jestingly perhaps, between the puffs of his cigar, not minding what they thought. Why should he mind what Mrs. Rivers thought? She would no longer wish to kiss that lean, strong hand of his; she might cry (she had Lady Craigenoch to cry to). He looked across at his wife, who was knitting; he would not have minded telling anything to her. But so intensely did he mind telling what he had to tell to Ellen Rivers that the millions, his good faith, the joy of winning and the beauty of the comp all hung doubtful in the balance against the look in the eyes of the lady at Prince Julian's. "What an infernal fool I am!" he groaned. Mrs. Byers glanced up for a moment, smiled sympathetically, and went on with her knitting. She supposed that there must be some temporary hitch about the latest million or perhaps Shum had been troublesome; that was sometimes what was upsetting Mr. Byers.

The next morning Mr. Shum was troublesome. He thought that the moment for action had come; the poor stock had been blown upon enough; the process of rehabilitation should begin. Various other gentlemen, wealthy with money, dropped in with their hats on the back of their heads and expressed the same views. Byers fenced with them, discussed the question rather inconclusively, took now this side and now that, hesitated, vacillated, shilly-shallied. The men wondered at him, they knew they were right, and, right or wrong, Byers had been wont to know his own mind. Their money was at stake; they looked at one another uncomfortably. Then the youngest of them, a fair boy, great at dances and late suppers, but with a brain for figures and a cool boldness which made him already rich and respected in the city, tilted his shining hat still a little farther back and drawled out, "If you've lost your nerve, Byers, you'd better let somebody else engineer the thing."

What her fair fame is to a proud woman the prestige of his nerve was to Mr. Byers. The boy had spoken the decisive word by chance, by the unerring instinct which in any sphere of thought is genius. In half an hour all was planned, the government of the prince's country saved and the agitation at an end. The necessary resources would now be forthcoming, confidence would be made, the coup brought off, the triumph won.

So in the next fortnight it happened. Prince Julian looked on with vague bewilderment, reading the articles and paragraphs which told him that he had abandoned all thought of action, had resigned himself to wait for an express recall from his loving subjects (which might be expected to assail his ears on the Greek kalends); that, in fact, he would do nothing. Mrs. Rivers read the paragraphs, too, and waited and waited and waited for the coming of Mr. Byers and the necessary resources. She smiled at what she read, for she had confidence in the cause, or at least in herself and in Mr. Byers. But the days went on. Slowly the stock rose; then it went the public with a rush. The paragraphs and the articles dwindled and ceased; there was a commotion somewhere else in Europe; Prince Julian and his manifesto were forgotten. What did it mean? She wrote a note asking Mr. Byers to call.

It was just at this time also that Mr. Henry Shum accepted the invitation of the Conservative Association of the Elton Garden Division of Holborn Bars to contest the seat at the approaching general election, and that Lady Craigenoch gave orders for the complete renovation of her town house. Both these actions involved, of course, some expense—how much it is hard to say precisely. The house was rather large, and the seat was very safe.

Prince Julian sat in his library in Palace Gate and Mrs. Rivers stood beside him, her hand resting on the arm of his chair. Now and then the prince glanced up at her face rather timidly. They had agreed that matters showed no progress. Then Mrs. Rivers had become silent.

"Has Byers thrown us over?" the prince asked at last.

"Hush, hush!" she answered in a low voice. "Wait till he's been. He's coming today." Her voice sank lower still as she whispered: "He can't have. Oh, he can't!"

There was silence again. A few minutes passed before the prince broke out fretfully: "I'm sick of the whole thing! I'm very well as I am. If they want me, let them send for me. I can't force myself on them."

She looked down for a moment and touched his hair with her hand.

"If this has come to nothing, I'll never try again. I don't like being made a fool of."

Her hand rested for a moment on his forehead. He looked up smiling.

"We can be happy together," he murmured. "Let's throw up the whole thing and be happy together." He caught her hand in his. "You'll stay with me anyhow?"

"You want me still?"

"You'll do what I ask?" he whispered.

"That would put an end to it indeed," she said, smiling.

"Thank heaven for it!" he exclaimed peevishly.

A servant came in and announced that Mr. Byers was in the drawing room.

"Shall I come, too?" asked the prince.

"Oh, no," she answered, with a strange little laugh. "What's the use of bothering you? I'll see him."

"Make him say something definite," urged Prince Julian. "Let's have an end of it one way or the other."

"Very well." She bent down and kissed him, and then went off to talk to Mr. Byers.

The fair boy with the business brains might have been seriously of opinion that there was something wrong with Byers' nerve had he seen him waiting for Mrs. Rivers in the drawing room, waiting to tell her that the necessary resources were not forthcoming. He hoped that he need tell her no more than that; he wished that he had not come, but he could not endure the self-contempt which the thought of running away had brought with it. He must face her; the woman could do no more than abuse him. One other thought he had for a moment entertained—of offering to let her stand in, as Mr. Shum had let Lady Craigenoch. There was hardly any sum which he would not have been glad to give her. But long before he reached the house he had decided that she would not stand in. "By heaven, I should think not," he said to himself indignantly.

Promptly Reaches the Seat of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases.

In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obstinate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved. Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailments or troubles so obstinate and difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S. S. S. is not merely a tonic—it is a cure! It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific—

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

GIGANTIC TRUST IN STEEL.

Wrought Tube Makers of the Country Unite.

$80,000,000 IS THE CAPITAL.

Twenty-seven plants in the combining which ranks next to Krupp and Carnegie—Edmund C. Converse President—Other Trade Combinations.

New York, July 13.—Consolidation of the wrought steel, iron and tube industries of the country was effected Wednesday by William Nelson Cromwell and E. C. Converse, the consolidated purchasers. The new company will be known as the National Tube company. It is the largest of the kind in the world and is the third in rank as a steel and iron corporation. It is exceeded by only the Krupp and Carnegie interests. Twenty-seven plants are controlled by the trust.

Beside controlling the domestic business the new combine will invade the Russian, Bulgarian, Japanese and Canadian markets. Twenty-five thousand men are employed.

W. N. Cromwell, general counsel for the combine, said the net earnings of the current year would be between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000, while the annual saving in general expenses would be from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000.

The capitalization is $80,000,000, divided into 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock of $40,000,000, and common stock of the same amount. All dividends exceeding $2,300,000 go to the common stockholders, and now equal 10 per cent.

The heads of the old concerns became directors in the new one. Edmund C. Converse is president. Headquarters will be in New York and Pittsburgh.

Writing-Paper Trust a Fact.

Appleton, Wis., July 13.—The writing-paper trust is now an accomplished fact, directly on the lines of the original proposition. The number of mills in the trust will be much smaller than was at first expected and will only, as far as now announced, take in one of the Wisconsin properties—the plant of the Shattuck & Babcock company at Depere. The trust has been incorporated with a capitalization of $25,000,000, and $17,000,000 will be issued in bonds. The offices of the company will be at Springfield, Mass.

Granite Quarry Combine.

Portland, Maine, July 13.—James G. Batterson, Jr., vice president of the New England Granite works, confirms the report that a combination of various eastern quarries is under way. There are about fifteen properties which will be included in the combine, which will represent some $12,000,000 capital. All the work in the consolidation movement is being done by the owners themselves, and not a share of stock will be offered to the public.

CANNON BEFORE THE JUSTICE.

Mormon Leader's Case Likely to Go to the Circuit Court.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 13.—In the justice's court Wednesday Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake Mormon church, waived examination on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, and the case will probably go up to the District court.

Whether other arrests on the same charge will follow is a matter of conjecture. There are hundreds of other children born of polygamous wives since Utah was admitted as a state. It is presumed, however, that only those cases will at first be selected in which a conviction is thought certain. One of these cases undoubtedly is that of Brigham H. Roberts, the congressman-elect from Utah.

Exports During June.

Washington, July 13.—The monthly statements of the exports for June, 1899, of domestic breadstuffs, provisions, cotton and mineral oils, issued by the bureau of statistics, shows as follows: Breadstuffs, $19,781,057; decrease, as compared with June, 1898, about $9,321,000. Cotton, $8,073,706; increase, $347,000. Cattle and hogs, $2,644,468; decrease, $186,000. Provisions, $15,056,528; increase, $2,305,000. Mineral oils, $5,481,991; increase, $509,000. Total, $51,037,748; net decrease, $6,215,000.

Refuse to Register Americans.

London, July 13.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The Transvaal field cornets are refusing to register American citizens unless they take oath to bear arms for the republic in the event of war. The Americans, therefore, threaten to become British subjects. The Transvaal government is making representations to Washington on the subject."

Big Fire Set by Lightning.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 13.—Lightning caused the destruction of half the business portion of Frewsburg, near this city, Wednesday. Loss, $20,000. The village has no apparatus for fighting fires. This electrical storm was the most severe ever known here and continued throughout the night.

Cleveland to Be Present.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 13.—Ex-President Cleveland will attend the Bible conference to be held at the assembly grounds Aug. 20. President McKinley will be here the same day.

THE BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played Yesterday in the Two Leading Leagues.

Boston defeated Chicago yesterday and sent it tumbling down to fourth place, Philadelphia advancing into third position through its victory over Cleveland. Washington made Cincinnati sorry it had gone, and 13 to 3 tells how the Colonels swamped Baltimore. New York trounced Pittsburgh, and once more did Brooklyn record a victory over St. Louis. ## No Western League Games.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 13.—The game between Minneapolis and Columbus was postponed Wednesday on account of rain.

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—The Buffalo game was prevented by rain Wednesday.

THE BOUNDARY OF ALASKA.

Arrangements for a Modus Vivendi Are Not Yet Made.

Washington, July 13.—No advance has been made during the last few days toward arrangement of a modus vivendi fixing temporarily the Alaskan boundary line. Meanwhile the 2d of August draws near and it will become necessary to make formal arrangement with the British government for a postponement of the meeting of the joint high commission. When the commission adjourned here last winter it was under a formal order to reassemble in Quebec on that date. As it is now realized that owing to the failure of the governments of the United States and Great Britain to settle by direct negotiation the Alaskan boundary question, the commission could not proceed with its work, even if it should meet Aug. 2, steps must be taken to vacate the order. Senator Fairbanks, president of the American commission, has notified Secretary Hay that he will be in Washington within ten days to report upon his recent visit to Alaska.

Accuse Morgan of Treachery.

Washington, July 13.—Senator Morgan has thrown a bombshell into the camp of the southern 15-to-1 congressmen now in the city by his published statement that the time has come to cease to follow fanatics or one-idea men. The statement is in effect an earnest appeal to all democrats to drop Bryan and silver. This stand taken by the Alabama senator, who is about to enter upon his campaign for re-election, has caused his colleagues in the senate to denounce him and accuse him of treachery. Among the leaders in this assault is ex-Senator Pugh, who protests against the words of Senator Morgan, and says the declaration is intended merely to defeat Bryan. He warns the party against such advisers, and predicts that all such machinations will prove futile and Bryan will be re-nominated.

Senator Jones Not to Resign.

Washington, July 13.—The Post says: "Senator Jones of Arkansas will not resign his position as chairman of the democratic national committee. Two letters have been received from him, in which he not only makes clear his intention of remaining at the head of the committee, but outlines the work upon which he intends to engage as soon as he returns to the United States."

Will Try to Aid the Spaniards.

Madrid, July 13.—United States Minister Bellamy Storer cordially received a delegation of the families of the Spanish prisoners in the Philippines, promising, on behalf of his government, that all that the American authorities could do should be done to secure the liberty of the captives.

Refused to Enter Cabinet.

New York, July 13.—The World says that Gov. Roosevelt was offered the portfolio of secretary of war in President McKinley's cabinet last Saturday. Gov. Roosevelt, the World says, refused the position.

Cuba Wants Annexation.

Washington, July 13.—Brig.-Gen. Rosser, who has just returned from Cuba, says that the sentiment for annexation is strong in the island.

ALGER MAKES A STATEMENT.

Secretary of War Settles All Resignation Rumors.

NO INTENTION OF RETIRING.

He Condemns the Repeated Reports as "Baseless and Annoying"—Details Critics to Point Out Mistakes in His Official Career.

Washington, July 13.—Secretary Alger Wednesday gave a representative of the Associated Press his first personal statement concerning the reports that he is about to resign from the cabinet. When asked as to the truth of the rumors the secretary said:

"What do you mean, exactly?" "I mean to ask whether or not the stories that you are to retire from the cabinet in the near future are true."

"There is nothing in these reports but air," replied the secretary. "I shall not retire this year, certainly, and can not say as to the future. My private business and the state of my health will govern my future course."

"These constant assaults and repeated baseless reports are, of course, very annoying to me and extremely distressing to my family, but I have never retired under fire yet, and do not propose to do so now."

"Nothing that I have ever heard of or known of has been so cruel as these attacks upon me. If my critics can point to one thing in my official career that I have done that I ought not to have done, or that I have not done that I should have done, I shall be very glad to surrender my present official duties."

Secretary and Mrs. Alger will leave Washington next Friday to spend Saturday and Sunday at Long Branch with Vice-President Hobart. The secretary was a guest of the vice-president last summer for a day or two, and was so well pleased with his entertainment by the vice-president, who is his intimate friend, that he will repeat the trip.

Rush Orders on the Philadelphia.

Washington, July 13.—Orders were sent by the navy department Wednesday to the commandant of the Mare island navy yard, California, to have the cruiser Philadelphia repaired without delay and get her into condition for sea service within the shortest possible time. The reason for expediting the Philadelphia for sea service could not be learned. The order is of such a character, however, as to form a strong basis for the belief that the Philadelphia will be sent on some important duty at an early day. It is hinted in some quarters that the disturbed conditions in Central America generally, and in Guatemala in particular, may furnish a reason for the orders.

Shows Heavy Fading Off.

Washington, July 13.—Contrary to common belief, the trade between the United States and Brazil last year showed a falling off, both in exports and imports. The figures quoted in a report to the state department by the United States consul Hill at Santos show that, while the exports to Brazil decreased half a million dollars in the past year, the imports fell off no less than $12,000,000.

THE FORCE OF WATER.

Some Big Results in Its Use for Hydraulic Mining.

A little group of solid citizens were standing on Baronne street watching a cleaning gang at work with the hose. "That reminds me of old days in California," said one of the party, as the stream veered slightly and peeled off the corner of a pile of dirt. "I never realized how much force could be developed by a jet of water," he continued, "until I tried hydraulic mining. It was in 1870, up on the Sacramento river. They had brought a stream down the Sierra Nevada Mountains in a big 'flume' that ended in a length of wire-wrapped hose and a six-foot nozzle with arms on the sides for a couple of men to take hold of. They played the stream against a big bluff directly opposite, and it bored out the solid, packed foundation like living fire eating into tinder. For a dozen feet from the nozzle the water seemed like a hard blue bar, and there was something so strange and murderous-looking in the way it drove straight out that it made my flesh creep to watch it. Several laborers had been accidentally struck by the stream and in each case the man was killed as suddenly as if hit by a cannon ball. I remember on one occasion some rival claimants came down from Shasta and took possession of a cabin not far from the end of the flume-line. Our boss, who was a big Irishman named Murphy, told us to turn the stream on the place, and as we were all spoiling for a row, we lost no time in obeying. I never saw such demolition in my life. The shanty flew seven ways, and one of the fellows inside was pitched bodily through the air and landed into the river. The distance was so great that nobody was killed, but all were badly hurt, and after that our gang was known as Murphy's Light Artillery. Mark Twain drew a very vivid picture of hydraulic mining in 'Roughing It,' and from personal experience I can assure you he hasn't embroidered the facts in the least."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Relic of Old Paris.

A very curious relic of old Paris is about to be removed—the house in the Rue de Venise, built in 1403 by the celebrated alchemist, palmist and philanthropist, Nicholas Flamel. It is one of the few specimens of fifteenth century architecture still to be seen in the French capital, says the London Chronicle. Until the revolution its upper floors were let to poor old men and women, who, in accordance with Flamel's will, had only to pray for the repose of his soul and to say an ave every day at the hour he died to secure lodgings rent free.

James J. Cavanaugh of Watertown, Mass., is 103 years old, the oldest man in New England. He saw Napoleon when in Paris during the Hundred Days.
